Please ensure that you read both sides of this form prior to filing a claim for unemployment benefits. If you become unemployed, this information may help to determine your unemployment benefit entitlement.

When to file a claim for unemployment benefits:

A claim for unemployment benefits begins the week it is filed. Therefore, you should file your claim for benefits during your first week of unemployment.

To receive unemployment benefits, you must be eligible and qualified. You must:

- File a claim and report for benefits as directed by the Unemployment Insurance Agency (UIA).
- Register for work as directed by the UIA.
- Have sufficient earnings in the past 18 months.
- Be able to work.
- Be available for work. You must immediately inform the UIA and all base period employers of any changes to your contact information (mailing address and telephone number) and respond to all UIA requests to update your contact information.
- If directed by the UIA, appear at a specified location provided in a mailed notice for an evaluation of your eligibility for unemployment benefits.
- If requested by the UIA, provide a statement of wages (wage affidavit) for purposes of calculating your unemployment benefits as state law requires that you produce evidence of those wages (pay stubs, W-2, employer payroll records, etc.).
- Be actively engaged in seeking work.
- Beginning with benefit years effective January 1, 2013, conduct a systematic and sustained work search effort by submitting your work search efforts as directed by the UIA.

To file a claim for benefits, you will need the following:

- 1 This form and any similar forms you received from any employer in the past 18 months, or pay stubs with employer name, employer payroll record, or W-2 Form.
